

Requested Amendments to the 2010 Texas Consolidated State Application Workbook

| | Change | Section | Justification |
|----|--|---|--|
| 1. | Graduation Rate Goals and Targets. | Section 1.2, Section 7.1 | Updated references to the Graduation Rate Goals and Targets following USDE peer review response. |
| 2. | Removal of hurricane provisions that applied only to 2008-2009 AYP determinations. | Section 1.2, Section 1.6, Section 4.1, Section 5.2 | Expiration of the US Department of Education (USDE) Hurricane Ike Flexibility Waiver. |
| 3. | Use of the growth measure for alternate assessment based on modified academic achievement standards, and alternate assessment based on alternate academic achievement standards. | Section 3.1, Section 5.3 | Implementation of Texas Projection Measure for TAKS-Modified tests in grades 4, 7 & 10; Implementation of the TAKS-Alternate Growth Measure for all tests and all grades. |
| 4. | Assignment of students to the limited-English proficient (LEP) student group for graduation rate. | Section 5.1 | Change to the business rules applied to the LEP student groups for the AYP graduation rate. |
| 5. | Other minor revisions include: Reference to the non-evaluation of graduation rate for Residential Facilities serving secondary grades in alternative settings. | Section 1.1 | Provision for unique settings applicable to a small number of districts and campuses. |
| 6. | Deleted text references to the Memorandum of Agreement regarding alternate assessment based on alternate academic achievement standards (TAKS-Alternate). | Section 1.3 | USDE fully approved standards and assessment system. |
| 7. | Revised text references to H1N1 flu outbreak delay provision. | Section 1.6 | Expiration of the USDE H1N1 provision. Reference to future School Improvement Program (SIP) delayed provisions in the case of future outbreaks. |
| 8. | Updated information on ethnicity for Student Group Definitions and Data Sources section. | Section 5.1 | Percent of students enrolled in Texas public schools for the 2008-09 school year. |