2012 and Beyond

Dates significant to the future state accountability system are listed below.

December 1, 2010	TEA delivered to the governor, lieutenant governor, and leaders of the Texas legislature a transition plan to implement HB 3 provisions.
July 29, 2011	2011 ratings are the last ratings issued under the current accountability system.
2011-12 School Year	Assignment of performance ratings are suspended for 2012. A new accountability system is developed with input from advisory groups. Districts will be informed of decisions as they are available.
By August 8, 2013	District and campus performance ratings are issued for the first time under the new accountability system. Ratings will be based on the percent proficient indicators. The percent college-ready indicators will be “report” only. Distinction designations will be issued to districts and campuses with acceptable performance concurrent with the release of performance ratings. Performance ratings issued in 2010-11 and 2012-13 school years will be considered consecutive.
By August 8, 2014	District and campus performance ratings will be issued for the second time. Ratings will be based on both percent proficient and percent college-ready indicators. Distinction designations will be issued to districts and campuses with acceptable performance concurrent with the release of performance ratings.
